THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

PRESIDENTIAL OUTCROPPINGS.

Who shall be next President? This question is rising prominently in all directions. Even the South is awaking to the sense of the urgency and vital importance of this question, and throughout the North, as well as at Albany, it begins to agitate the public mind. One signal proof of the interest which it already excites, is to be found in the eager haste, the violence and folly with which the extreme radicals have initiated systematic opposition to General Grant, whom the popular voice has spontaneously and unanimously nominated as the chosen candidate of the American people for the Presidency. The radicals have whispered slanderous insinuations against the private character of General Grant; they have sneered at his reticence as a cloak for paucity of ideas, and they have described him as a man of few words and fewer ideas.—They dare not and cannot deny his splendid record as a man of action. But they are wilfully blind to the sheer impossibility of his having done so much and gone through such a tremendous ordeal so triumphantly without having had a great many ideas, which his rare genius has translated into action more eloquent than any words.—Grant is head and shoulders above every other Presidential candidate who has yet been named by the press, in popularity, in ability and in weight of personal character.

The efforts of the radicals to forestall public opinion by nominating Chase will only bring out and multiply the friends of Grant, and their name is already legion. As we have more than once predicted, the million of soldiers whom he led to conquest and glory, and the millions with whom these soldiers are individually connected, will make this greatest General and hero of modern times President of the United States. The little game of the radicals has been to keep the name of Grant under a bushel, as it were, until they can nominate Chase. But the people must be on the alert and see to it that intriguers be foiled in their attempt to head off a candidate whose name rises superior to all parties and factions. Now is the time for the politicians thoughout the entire country to move with the people in the matter. The nomination of General Grant—of the man who saved the nation in war, and who can save it again from perils equally serious,—would be an earnest of peace and repose. It would rapidly hasten the process of reconstruction through which the South is passing, with what results the future alone can determine; and the future will largely depend upon the choice of our next Presidential candidate. Let the people primarily put forward their candidate, dispensing with the corrupt convention system, which is unknown to the laws and the constitution, and ought to be abolished. The attempt of the radicals to pack conventions and nominate Chase, Wade or Stanton, will only unite all, democrats and moderate republicans alike, throughout the land on the Grant platform. Among the issues which are to control the next Presidential contest will be an overhauling and cutting down of our present oppressive national bank, credit and taxation systems, internal and external. We cannot believe that the people at large are ready to sacrifice the immense advantages of a full restoration of the Union for the sake of furthering the pet schemes of Stevens, Sumner, Butler and Wendell Phillips for Southern confiscation and for placing the white race of the South in political subjection to the emancipated blacks. It would be far preferable to upset the costly and powerful electioneering machinery of the national banks, even at the risk of spoiling the prospects of Chief Justice Chase as a Presidential candidate. Wendell Phillips might be allowed to empty all the vials of his wrath, if the nation were once to enter fairly upon the era of harmony and prosperity which would date from the inauguration of General Grant as President of the United States of America.—N. Y. Herald.

THE TRIAL OF JOHN H. SURRATT.—The preliminary proceedings in the Surratt trial to-day were just as I foreshadowed in yesterday's despatch. District Attorney Carrington moved to set aside the list of jurors prepared by the Register of the District, in conjunction with the Clerk of the Levy Court and Clerk of Georgetown, and the motion was a complete surprise to the defence, who were so taken aback that they were at a loss how to proceed. The point raised is important in more respects than one, for if sustained by the Court, as indeed seems possible and almost inevitable, it may affect the fate of many persons already tried, convicted and sentenced in the District of Columbia. It seems that the selecting of the jurors has been conducted in an illegal manner for years, through the want of information on the part of officers charged with that important duty. Legal gentlemen here say that should Judge Fisher decide that the objection of the prosecution to the present jurors selected is good, that then perhaps all former convictions, under similar circumstances, have been illegal. The effect of this, if logically leading to such a conclusion, would certainly be rather inconvenient. Conover and other noted criminals were convicted under similar circumstances, and it would be a curious result of sharp pleading in the Surratt case should Conover be declared now a liber homo once more, or at least not a condemned man in the eye of that uncertain institution, the law. Some lawyers hold that the rigid rules of the statute, as regards the mode of getting a jury, would only apply to cases where the life of a man might be involved. But others take a broader view, and assert that all criminals would get the benefit of such an informality. The motion has caused quite a sensation here, as it has developed a point that escaped the attention of lawyers until the present moment. It is said that the counsel for the defence are so much surprised that they are undecided now what action they will take in the matter. It may be, after all, therefore, that another postponement will occur, though it is extremely doubtful, for the prosecution are now eager to push forward the trial, all their witnesses are on hand, and it might be very difficult to get them together again should they scatter.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Times, 11th.

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secresy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

IMMIGRATION TO THE SOUTH—NORTH CAROLINA.

An extensive business firm in this city has called our attention to a letter received from a correspondent in Chester county, Pennsylvania, from which we make the following extract:

"I have a small farm that I am trying to sell, with the intention of going into a milder climate, and think of your State as my destination; but we know so little about your land, or price asked per acre, that I shall ask of you to refer this note to some person interested in selling land. A great many persons here are selling and going to Maryland; and when I speak of North Carolina, I am asked the question 'are you not afraid?—why they will not let a northern man live there.' It is a great pity that this opinion could not be contradicted, for the sake of the South, as well as for the benefit of many here who have money enough to buy a small farm in the South, and here cannot afford to pay from $100 to $200 per acre."

We confess, as we have heretofore repeatedly observed, that we are not surprised at the solicitude, which prevails to so considerable an extent at the North, respecting the disposition of our people to welcome immigration from that section.—It would be singular if the case were otherwise, in the face of the misrepresentations of which we are the victims, at the hands of those, in our own midst, who are interested in building up a selfish party organization, at the expense of the prosperity of their neighbors and the material interest of the land in which they live, but of which they are not. Distrusted and despised at home, their only hope of gaining their nefarious ends is by depreciating the loyalty of their fellow-citizens, disturbing the sense of public stability and unsettling the security of property-titles. They resemble those beasts of prey, who only go out upon their predatory journeys when the stars are obscured and the elements in strife. It is but natural that their calumnies should have accomplished their purpose, when they find, as is so generally the case at the North, credulous ears wide open to receive them. "Contradicted" they have been a thousand times, but the denial cannot keep pace with the slander, especially when so large a portion of the Northern press, under the prejudiced and bitter influences which control it, is so ready to push forward the one and suppress the refutation. A few Radical malignants in the South have thus done more to cripple the physical and industrial condition of the South, than they could ever repair, under their "reconstruction," should they live to the age of the patriarchs.

For ourselves, we are wearied with the profitless task of seeking to counteract these imputations upon the people of North Carolina. Perhaps, however, the timorous and doubting, who question their peaceable disposition, will give some credit to the emphatic declaration of Gen. Sickles, made in this city, on the occasion of the President's late visit, and iterated at Chapel Hill. We re-produce it for their benefit:

"No people of whom I have read, or among whom I have lived, could bear themselves with more honor, dignity and order, than this people have exhibited under the peculiar circumstances."

As to the other question: That lands may be bought as cheaply in the South, and particularly in North Carolina, as in any portion of the Union, is a fact beyond all intelligent dispute. Most of the government acres in the Western and North-Western States, which were cheap, valuable or accessible to market, have long since been disposed of, and are now either under cultivation by their owners, or held for speculation at exorbitant rates. Lands at the South are not only, as a general rule, cheap, in proportion to their intrinsic or improved value, but the general features of the country in which they exist are known. The proposed emigrant may study its geography before he leaves home.

The situation of North Carolina, as viewed upon the map, is of the most favorable character: near mid-way in the temperate zone, with an extended line of sea-coast, numerous lengthy rivers, a broad belt of beautiful alluvial and gently undulating country, and a grand mountainous region to the West. Within its borders can thus be found almost every diversity of soil and climate, and, consequently, every species of production in perfection. It is equal, first, to any State in the Union, as a grain-growing country. Throughout its limits abound quantities of the finest timber, paramount among which ranks that great boon of Providence, THE PINE. In the East, we find luscious peaches and grapes, and even the tropical fig, growing luxuriantly in the open air,—in the West, delicious apples and all other varieties of the finest fruits. In one portion, the sweet potato arrives at perfection,—in another, the rarest Irish potatoes are grown. In the North, we have tobacco of the best,—in the South and East the finest cotton. In the East, we have rice, with shoals of fish in every bay, sound and river,—in the West, abundance of game, a salubrious climate, rich mines beneath the surface, and, above, a land literally "flowing with milk and honey." There are few places upon this earth where wealth may be amassed without assiduous, prudent industry, and with this, all other things being at all equal, a man may grow rich as soon as there,—no matter where that "there" may be.

With respect to the actual prices of lands, we have no information, as does the correspondent above referred to, from those who are interested in selling.

HAND UP.—The Standard finds fault with [illegible]

"REGISTER! REGISTER!"

Such is the watch-word of nearly all of our Southern exchanges. We can scarcely open a Southern paper that does not ring out this signal word in glaring capitals.—The Richmond Whig well says: "There are two modes of manifesting opposition to reconstruction—one by active, the other by passive resistance. Active resistance would be made by registering and voting against conventions, and against acceptable candidates and constitutions; passive resistance by not registering or voting at all. Between the two, the bolder and more manly course, though equally disastrous, is the former. It is, therefore, more to be respected. It does not hide or seek to hide itself, but comes out frankly, assumes all the responsibility that properly attaches to it, and relieves the community from any share of it, while those who pursue the passive policy shrink away from observation and accountability, leaving the community in which they live to bear the responsibility."

Republican meetings are all the rage in North Carolina. The colored citizens are holding conferences with the radical whites in almost every part of the State. A resolution of protest has been invariably passed at every meeting against the continuance in power of the present rebel State organization.—Wash. Cor. of New York Herald.

And it might have been added, that all the "resolutions of protest" are ground out of the same machine. They are entirely of central dictation, and so similar in phraseology as to warrant the presumption that they were all manufactured in Raleigh.

He also charged that Gov. Worth had expressed the opinion that the freedom of the negro was an experiment, and that slavery would ultimately have to be restored!—Standard.

This is the language which the Standard puts in the mouth of some nameless speaker at a late meeting in Tupper's church, in this City. It is hardly worth contradicting, but it is simply a whopper, by whomsoever spoken.

Gov. Worth was never an advocate of slavery. He sprang from a sect whose views on that subject are well known, though he never carried them, perhaps, to the extent to which they were held by the Friends. But one thing he did: He always resisted the efforts of the Standard, and others, who sought, through so many years, to break up the Union on account of slavery!

GEN. GRANT.—We publish, on our first page, an article from the New York Herald advocating the claims of General Grant for the Presidency, and giving sundry side-wipes at other distinguished aspirants. We give it, simply, as one of the indications of the times.

The Raleigh Sentinel mistakes the Richmond Dispatch for the Richmond Examiner, and attributes to the former what belonged to the latter.—Dispatch.

Wherein? Tell us, and we will make the amende.—Sentinel.

MILKING THE SOUTHERN COW

"I do not question her right to reject my suit, But why did she kick me down stairs?"

The Radicals, who now claim to be the especial friend of the black man, have not only refused him political and social equality in the North, but they have manifested their love by levying on his peculiar industry the heaviest tax ever laid upon any people on earth. Fifteen dollars per bale of cotton! History will be ransacked in vain for a parallel. The crop of last year is estimated at two million of bales, making the tax thirty millions of dollars! This tax for 1866 and 1867, and it will probably be more the present year, would purchase a comfortable farm for every freedman in the South!—Let it not be said that this tax is not paid by the freedman. He goes to the field.—His labor grows the cotton and constitutes the base of our industrial system and must bear all the superincumbent weight. Labor, everywhere, finally, pays all taxes—The Radicals do not lay any agricultural tax on themselves, upon their hay crop, nor their corn crop, nor their wheat crop, nor any crop "that is theirs." What is the object of this enormous discriminating tax on cotton? Is it to utterly pauperize the South by way of punishment? What has the black man done to incur Radical resentment? Is it laid for revenue? If so, why allow, by the same law, the manufacturer to draw from the treasury three cents per yard as a bounty for every yard exported? If needed for revenue, why give it away to a class already swollen with wealth? Mr. Greeley says it is wanted as "local revenue!" That is the secret, and the locus is the Radical pocket? The other day at Richmond, Gerritt Smith, who has been a great Radical light in his day and seems to be a frank man, likened slavery to a cow, which he said the South had held and the North had milked. The South had ceased to hold, but the milking process nevertheless goes on. Well might Mr. Kelley contrast our poverty with the bloated wealth of the North, for the South has been "milked," aye, nigh unto death, by measures for local revenue, such as tariffs, navigation laws, fish bounties, discriminating cotton taxes, &c., &c., and the milking will go on while the Radicals rule. They are practical slave holders, for they appropriate the proceeds of the freedman's labor.

They came in the guise of charity, but what is the pittance he receives through the Bureau compared with this cotton tax? It is, "art thou in health, my brother," like Joab of old, while a sword smites under the fifth rib. And now they seek to appropriate his vote. No, Mr. Radical, you cannot deceive even the confiding freedman. There is so much of wolf in you that all the wool on earth could not hide it. You are so selfish and grasping, your propensity to plunder and aggrandize is so great and so well developed, that you cannot keep up even the show of generosity long enough to make the deception succeed.

Fred. Douglass will speak in Indianapolis on the 21st. The President was not allowed to say anything to the Indianapolitans' but this is a man of another color.

Calvin M. Northrup, a lawyer of Westchester county, N. Y., has been sentenced to twelve years penal servitude for alleged attempted poisoning of his wife.

Hon. James Guthrie, of Kentucky, whose illness has for some time past prevented him from taking his seat in the U. S. Senate, is recovering his health.

The Warrenton Index speaks of Rev. W. E. Munsey as the most eloquent and powerful preacher in this country, if not in the world.

STATE NEWS.

—— The Wilmington Journal speaks of its increasing patronage and claims that the circulation, (including Wilmington,) of its Daily is equal to that of any other Daily in the State. We are pleased to record this evidence of the success of our excellent cotemporary.

—— Lieut. Gen. Hardee, late of the C. S. A., is on a business visit to Tarboro, accompanied by his wife.

—— The last was a sensational week in Tarboro. The Wilmington Journal says:

"On Sunday night a most diabolical murder occurred near the Railroad Depot at Tarboro'. A negro, Gus. ——, shot and instantly killed another negro, Matthew King. The negroes of the vicinity gave pursuit to Gus, and, having arrested him, delivered him to the Sheriff, and he is now in custody.

From the evidence of King's wife, before the committing Magistrate, it appears a few nights after the robbery of the Southern Express Company's safe, Gus borrowed an axe of King, and soon after, hearing a noise as if a safe was being broken open, King went out and attempted to take his axe from Gus, for fear of being implicated in the robbery. On the night of the murder, Gus went to King's house, and calling him out, without warning, fired and killed him.

The safe of the Express Company has been found buried near the house of Gus, but opened, and its contents, except a few railroad tickets, gone. It is thought this affair will lead to a discovery of the robbers and the stolen money.

We also learn that on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, unsuccessful attempts were made to fire the village in the most central portion. On Wednesday night the attempt was almost successful. Two old buildings were burned, and the residence of Mr. R. A. Sizer saved by the most strenuous exertions on the part of the citizens. Should the flames have reached this residence, much of the village would have been destroyed.—We trust the incendiaries may be discovered and properly punished."

—— Henry R. Bryan, Esq., of Newbern, in reply to a letter from a Committee of gentlemen asking his views on the duties of the hour, "hits the nail on the head" in the following just and pungent observations:

"The Radical party is thoroughly revolutionary and corrupt. Its history is written in blood, and crimes of every grade are recorded upon its every page. Under the name of Republican, they desire to sweep from this land every vestige of freedom, and you, fellow citizens, that can vote, and do not, at the coming election, assist to forge the chains, which this vindictive faction are now forging for their fellow citizens; you aid in surrendering the government of the State into the hands of those persons whose only idea of government is, that it is an agency through which they may persecute those who oppose them, and fill their empty pockets with the public money. You participate in fixing a despotism upon the State, which cannot be contemplated without horror, and for which posterity will hold you, in a measure, responsible."

—— Edgar Miller, a negro hailing from Wilmington, addressed a large crowd of the colored population in Warrenton, on Monday. The Indicator says:

"The colored orator is rather a good looking mulatto, lamentably deficient in education, said his speech with some oratorical effect, is bold, confident, profane and blasphemous. The general character of his remarks was mischievous. He is very full of Radical ideas, and has diligently studied the political fanfaronade of Wilson, Kelly & Co. If harm does not come of it, we shall be duly thankful. We should like for J. H. Harris to come this way. He owes it to himself to come, as Miller "pitched into" him with gloves off."

—— The Newbern Journal of Commerce gives the following description of the new method of sinking wells or the economical labor saving Pump, to which allusion has heretofore been made in these columns.—These pumps, except in places where rock interposes serious obstacle, are destined, we should think, to supersede all former improvements:

"Our attention has been called to a new invention in the scientific world, and as it is so simple, and an article of such practical utility, we will give our readers a short description of it.

We have reference to the new pump, or rather to the new well which has been lately invented, and patented, and which is styled by the owners of the patent in North Carolina,—Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co.,—"The new and improved method of sinking wells, or the Economical Labor saving Pump."

The principle seems to have been only recently known even in France, for in the Scientific American of June 15th, we notice the following as among the Exposition notes: "The suction of Wells is a principle patented and illustrated by M. A. Donnet, Civil Engineer of Lyons."

By closing the well air-tight, and exhausting the air, the water currents reached by the well will be drawn upon, together with their branches and remoter connections, with considerable force, and the flow of water, where insufficient, will be materially increased.

Now this is the principle involved in the Pump and Well. The Well at the lower point has a double casing which is perforated at the sides with sixty four holes, each three eighths of an inch in diameter, and is lined with wire gauze to prevent sand from entering. The holes in the pipe are closed while it is being put down, and again opened when completed, which is, as soon as a good vein of water is reached. Should the water prove unsatisfactory, either in quality or quantity, another section of pipe can be screwed on, and the whole be driven deeper. The well is formed of one and a quarter inch galvanized iron pipe, and looks like it would last a life time.

The only tools needed for putting down the pump, are two pair of pipe tongs, an iron cap upon which to drive, and a wood or iron maul.

We feel confident that in the present state of the domestic labor question, this invention will be one of great practical benefit to every housekeeper, as by boring a hole in the floor, it can be put down in the kitchen, dining room, or piazza, and furnish, in the most convenient place, an inexhaustible supply of water. The cost, we learn, varies from $30 to $50, according to the depth required.

We have seen several in use, and learn that a large number have already been put down in Newbern, Beaufort, Morehead City, Kinston and other places.

While our public city pumps can be exhausted in from three to six hours, by continued pumping, we learn that the owners of this well are so well convinced of its capacity to furnish water under all circumstances, that they offer one hundred dollars to any one who will exhaust either of the pumps that they have put down in this city. The more they are used, the better supply of water is obtained.

Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., contemplate one of sufficient size for the use of the Steam Fire Engine of this city, and will challenge the company to pump it dry. Should the large size succeed in proportion to the small, we will be able to have an abundant supply of water to extinguish any fire, without going to the river."

——The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Cheraw and Coalfields Railroad Company was held in Charleston, on the 8th inst. Among the new Directors elected, we observe the names of Messrs. O. H. Dockery and W. C. Smith and Dr. O. Hadley, of this State.

The annual report of the President and Directors recounts the efforts that were made, at the last session of our General Assembly, seeking the aid of the State towards the completion of this important work.—It could not, under all the circumstances, have been expected that the bill asking a direct appropriation should have passed, but we regret that the last scheme which was introduced, and advocated with much ability by Gen. Dargan, should have failed. That asked a simple transfer of $500,000 stock in the North Carolina Railroad, in exchange for a corresponding amount of the stock in the Cheraw and Coalfields Railroad Company, pledging the latter Company to pay to the State of North Carolina dividends corresponding in amount with the dividends that may hereafter be declared and paid by the North Carolina Railroad Company, and that the means derived from the proposed subscription should be expended within the limits of North Carolina.

The Report concludes as follows:

"Fully aware of the great importance of the Cheraw and Coalfields Railroad, penetrating as it does the heart of a splendid mineral region, where other railroads will concentrate and pour their teeming freights into this great Southern trunk—with inexhaustible supplies of coal, iron and other minerals wanted in all of our Southern cities, only awaiting transportation—developing, as it proposes to do, at least five wealthy Counties of North Carolina, with a population of upwards of 60,000 inhabitants—to say nothing of the through travel that would be poured into this great central line from North to South—in full view of these and other strong considerations which can not be noticed in a brief report, your Board would not pause in so important an undertaking, it only ordinary difficulties had to be encountered. But extraordinary obstacles now stand in the way of every enterprise of the kind, and besides such as are common to all great public improvements, ours is especially unfortunate in having opposition from a quarter where it would be reasonable to expect the strongest support. North Carolina, so far from aiding in the construction of a road which is located for seventy-five miles on the soil of the State, has heretofore been strongly and persistently opposed to it, and very little substantial encouragement has been given to the enterprise even by the people along the route, notwithstanding the incalculable advantages which it would bestow upon the State and the people of the State.

Among the expedients that have been considered by your Board, is that of attempting to expend the means already in hand upon this end of the road, commencing at Cheraw, and building it if possible as far as Pee Dee river, some thirty-three miles above the starting point.

Even this short link would be important as a feeder to the roads south of it, and would in the opinion of your Board not only silence all opposition to its further progress in North Carolina, but would be likely to induce the opponents of the road as it now stands, to wish it speedily pushed through from the river to the Gulf."

For the Sentinel.

Messrs. Editors:—As it seems that there are Northern men inclined to purchase land and locate in the South, who are deterred therefrom by doubts of its safety, and the sort of treatment they are likely to receive at our hands, would it not be advisable, for our own advantage, that the people of the different Counties of North Carolina should hold public meetings and assure them that honest, good men will be fairly and courteously treated if they choose to buy our lands and settle amongst us? The term abolitionist has become obsolete by the law of events, and will not be cast in their teeth by any decent man among us. And the tongue of a rowdy has no sting in it. Northern men especially of the radical stamp ought not to expect that, of such scourging as southern men have received from the North within the last six years, they will be embraced after the French fashion; but I think I can promise them at once fair treatment, and very soon kind, if they prove worthy of it. As to security of life and limb, I am sure they would be safer at the South, than at the North. Let us call their attention to what Gen. Sickles has just said at Raleigh: "No people of whom he had read and among whom he lived, could bear themselves with more honor, dignity and order than they had exhibited under the peculiar circumstances."

GRANVILLE.

THE SUFFRAGE QUESTION AT THE SOUTH.—The opinion of the Attorney General, supplementary to that recently given and published upon the proper interpretation of the late reconstruction acts of Congress respecting suffrage in the Southern States, has not yet been completed, and will not be, we understand, for some time. So far as the orders of the commanding generals upon this subject have been received officially, their terms have not been found to conform to the general principles laid down in the opinion already promulgated, although they have been issued since its publication, and ignorance of its manifest import cannot be plead as a ground of ignoring the views of the Government. This, however, is but an additional evidence of the despotism of the generals in command of the several military districts carved out of the Southern States, to disregard the interpretation of the laws as expounded by the civil authority, executive and judicial. We have good reasons, nevertheless, to believe that instructions, founded upon the ideas of the chief legal officer of the Government, will be given in due time, in a more categorical manner, and in such form as to render compliance a matter of military as well as civil duty.—National Intelligencer.

RUMORED CHANGES.—It is rumored that the President will base any action that he may take revoking the extreme decisions of some of the Southern District Commanders upon the decision of the Supreme Court in the Mississippi injunction cases, wherein it was held that the duties of Generals commanding the several military districts must necessarily be performed under the supervision of the President as commander-in-Chief; and the duty thus imposed was in no sense ministerial, but purely executive and political.—Char. Mercury.

Gen. Sickles' Advisory Board of Registration is now holding daily sessions at Charleston, S. C., and will probably report in a day or two.

CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF HARTFORD, CONN.

INCORPORATED MAY 1846,

ASSETS OVER

15.000,000,00

INCOME OVER $6.500,000,00.

The Largest Life Insurance Company in the World!

IT HAS NO STOCK CAPITAL; THE FIFTEEN Million Dollars all belong to the Policy holders, which now exceed 44,000, and not withstanding the payment of a sixty per cent dividend last year, there is now a surplus of

OVER 6,000,000,00,

It has had, through its entire history, the smallest average expenses, and, therefore, it is the safest and

CHEAPEST LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY IN EXISTENCE.

The Ætna Life's General Agent of N. C., in last week's paper, made a statement as follows: "The ratio of the Ætna's expenses to premiums and total income is less than that of the Connecticut Mutual." He surely has not seen the State of New York's Commissioners Report, ending Dec. 31, 1866: "Ratio of expenses to premiums and interest, Connecticut Mutual 11.11, Ætna 16,60; to premiums only, Connecticut Mutual 13,44, Ætna 17,50." "That Company in which the average expenses are the lowest and the rate of interest obtained on investments is the highest (other things being equal,) affords life insurance at the least cost; also the Company is the safest in which the largest number is insured."

THAT COMPANY IS THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL.

This Company gives the Policy holder a credit or forbearance of one half his premium, and in case of early death, the number of dividends will always equal the number of out-standing credits. All policies non-forfeitable by their terms, or may be made so at the option of the insured. For further information apply to,

PATENT IMPROVED METHOD OF SINKING WELLS, OR THE NEW LABOR SAVING ECONOMICAL PUMPS.

HAVING PURCHASED THE ENTIRE AND exclusive right to the patent improved method of sinking Wells, for the State of North Carolina, we desire to have a good and reliable Agent in every county of the State.

As it is desirable for every family to have an abundant supply of water, on their own premises, for convenience, safety and economy, the sale of this Pump offers a fine opening for an enterprising man in each county, to engage in profitable business.

OUR PRICES ARE FOR No. 1 SIZE, $35;
No. 2, $30,

WITH A LIBERAL DISCOUNT TO AGENTS.

We have a No. 2 Pump in operation in front of our Store, No. 22, Pollock Street, which was sunk in an hour and supplies about 3,000 GALLONS of pure water per day. They can also be seen in operation at the Gaston House, and at other places in Newbern; also at Kinston, Beaufort, Morehead city, and at many other places.

This is the cheapest and most speedy mode of obtaining water in any section, as you can exclude any stream of water reached, which is not satisfactory, and obtain only that which is most desirable.

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS.

OPEN JUNE 1

This favorite and delightful watering-place, having undergone thorough renovation, is prepared to receive visitors. The owners have made every effort in the outfit and equipment to render the place more than ever attractive to those in quest of recreation, while to the invalid its medicinal waters hold out new hopes of health. It may be confidently claimed for them that they have in a great many cases relieved, and in many more cases cured, the following diseases: SCROFULA, and many chronic CUTANEOUS diseases; CHRONIC THRUSH, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC DIARRHOEA, DROPSY, AFFECTIONS OF KIDNEY and BLADDER, and PILES; and, in connection with the Hot Baths, CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

As an appetizer, a tonic, and general restorative to an enfeebled constitution, it is perhaps unrivalled amongst mineral waters. The proprietors have engaged for the approaching season

A VERY SUPERIOR BAND OF MUSIC,
both for the Lawn and the Ball-Room.

THE BILLIARD AND BOWLING SALOONS, both for ladies and gentlemen, will be found in more complete order than ever before.

From the very extensive preparations now making at all the leading Virginia Springs, a heavy travel is anticipated, and, we think, will be attracted. It shall be the aim of the undersigned to keep their establishment FULLY UP TO THE FOREMOST; and they hope to see a renewal of the social re-unions which in former years lent such a charm to these mountain retreats.

Passengers by the Virginia Central railroad get off the cars at GOSHEN Depot. Eight (8) miles of staging over a smooth road lands them at the Springs.

BOARD, $3.50 PER DAY; $90 PER MONTH.

We have secured the efficient services of Captain WILLIAM H. SALE, so long and favorably known to the public, in connection with these Springs.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, JUNE 14, 1867.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Court Notice from Bertie Co: D. C. Winston, Clk.

Agricultural Implements, &c: Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

The Fall Session of Louisburg Male Academy,—said to be a most excellent one under the best auspices,—will begin July 8th., 1867. See advertisement.

Eclectic Medical College of Pennsylvania: Seventeenth Annual Session, &c.

Florence Sewing Machine for sale: W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

The next session of Dr. Wilson's admirable School, Melville, Alamance Co., will commence on the 18th prox.

We call attention to the announcement of the N. C. College, Mt. Pleasant, Cabarrus Co. This is one of the first institutions in the South.

MAYOR'S COURT.—W. Green, charged with shooting a cow belonging to Dr. W. Baker, was returned to the County Court.

George Sadler, colored, charged with stealing a carpet bag and lot of clothing from Jo. Brown, colored, was also returned to the County Court.

P. H. Healy and J. C. Dickson, charged with misdemeanors, were each fined $5.

SUPREME COURT.—The celebrated Johnston will case, coming up by appeal from Chowan Superior Court, was under consideration before this tribunal on yesterday. Gov. Graham made an elaborate and able argument in behalf of the appellants, on yesterday morning, and up to the hour of the adjournment of the Court. The case was also ably argued, in the afternoon, we learn, by Messrs. Winston and Phillips for the propounders. The hearing will be continued to-day.

CIRCUIT COURT.—This Court, in the case of Leander Todd, convicted of mail-robbery, sentenced the criminal to three years imprisonment. There being no suitable place of confinement in this State, the presumption is that the culprit will be sent to some State where there is a Penitentiary. We trust that the fate of this young man will be a warning to others who are exposed to similar temptations.

BARBECUE.—We acknowledge the compliment of an invitation to be present at a grand barbecue, which took place in the vicinity of the City, on yesterday. We were unavoidably prevented from attending. We learn that it was quite a "union feast," —a mingling of "the Roses,"—and went off pleasantly and well. A large number of our citizens, including the Governor and some of the heads of Department, together with a number of Federal officers, were present.

SOUTHERN ORPHAN ASSOCIATION.—The managers of the Presentation Concert announce that the drawing will take place in Baltimore, on Monday next, 17th inst. All of the tickets have not been sold, and therefore the present drawing will only be pro rata. In other words, only, of course, such numbers as have been sold will be placed in the wheel, and whatever prizes on the original schedule they may call for will be honored.

Mr. Moore, the Agent in this city, has closed sale of tickets and made his returns. Within the few days of his agency, he disposed of about one hundred and seventy-five tickets in Raleigh.

GEN. MILES.—Our friend "Personne," of the Charleston Mercury, is rather hard on this officer, at present at the head of the Freedmen's Bureau in this State. As a matter of simple justice, we proffer the remark, that it is stated of Gen. Miles, that, in his treatment of the great State Prisoners, he acted under strict orders.

We have been pleased to see, on two recent occasions, the indications of a generous spirit on the part of the gentleman in question. We allude to his presence on the occasion of the commemorative exercises at the Memorial Cemetery, and of the recent interment of the remains of Col. Burgwyn. This was soldierly and right. His prominent agency in the recent distribution of the Boston fund, also, has been marked by a catholic and liberal spirit, and challenges recognition and commendation.

PRETTY GOOD.—Conversation between two darkies on the side-walk, yesterday:

No. 1. It ain't a'gwine to rain agin in a month.

No. 2. How you know? Look mighty like it, any how.

No. 1. Case, General Sickles done issued an order agin its raining!

No 2: (Perfectly satisfied,) Ah, 'deed.

THE LATE MRS. D. M. BARRINGER.—Dr. Deems furnishes to the Episcopal Methodist, of this city, a beautiful tribute to the memory of this most estimable lady, who died, a few days since, at the residence of her brother, in Brooklyn, N. Y. The afflicted family of the deceased wife and mother have the warmest sympathies of this community in their bereavement. We make the following extracts from Dr. Deems letter:

"I have just returned from our friend the Hon. D. M. Barringer, who has this day been stricken and bereaved by the departure of his estimable wife, who died at the residence of her brother, Hon. Jas. S. Wethered, in Brooklyn, this morning at 10 o'clock, in the forty-sixth year of her age. Since last summer she has had symptoms of cancer, and upon my return from your city last November I brought her to her friends in Baltimore, and in a fortnight she followed to New York, for medical advice and treatment.

Her disease made very rapid progress against all the skill employed to check it. The tortures she has endured in daily operations for five months are past all description, and the fortitude with which she bore her terrific sufferings has been to me a subject of perpetual admiration. Born to wealth, to flattery and indulgence, very beautiful in her youth and very attractive always, moving in a circle in which were many temptations, she preserved her purity of character very remarkably. When her husband was our trusted and honored representative at the court of Spain, there was no lady in the diplomatic corps more respected and caressed; yet she was the least spoiled child of flattery I ever knew.

Of late years she has been in the furnace of affliction, as the citizens of Raleigh know. I was with her when her remarkable children were taken from her, and I went with her to see her husband when he met with a serious accident in the last year of the war, and I have seen her suffer and have watched her as the physician gave her to understand the hopelessness of her case, and I have stood by her when she was in such a wretched plight that the touch of her sister's hand gave her a thrill of agony, and have beheld her suffer until my own nerves vibrated in sympathy,—and through it all she seemed always to be thinking more of the pain of others than of herself. Indeed, through life, this was a remarkable trait of her character,—thoughtfulness of others, her sacrifice of herself.

She had the gratification of the presence of her husband and her two sons, of nearly all her brothers and sisters, and of those who had been her most intimate friends, in her most trying hours. She could not have ordered the circumstances of her departure more satisfactorily.

"Glory to God, to God she saith,
Knowledge by suffering entereth,
And life is perfected by death."

ICE-CREAM SALOON.—Our young friend, Mr. T. T. Fentress, has just opened his Ice-Cream Hall for the season, at Fentress' old stand, on Fayetteville Street. From the specimen which he sent us on yesterday, we prononounce his "make" A. No. 1., and commend it to all who want "cooling" and refreshment. Give him one call, and you will be sure to go again.

IN THE REGISTRATION and the elections which the military authorities propose to hold, it is the manifest and imperative duty of all who are permitted, to register and to vote. Such means as are available to prevent the evils that are threatened, should be energetically employed, and fully exhausted. He is a madman who would refuse or neglect it; and he would take to himself a share in the responsibility of the disaster that might ensue in consequence.— Let us do all we may, in a prudent undemonstrative manner, to abate the hardships and perils of our condition,—endure with patience what we must,—and while thus assisting the healing influences of time, devote our choicest energies to our material interests. In short let us work, and if need be wait, with fortitude and hope. We shall but make the way rougher and longer by inconsideration and impatience.—Richmond Enquirer.

A BAZAAR AT NORFOLK.—A large bazaar has been opened at Norfolk, Va., under the auspices of the Washington and Lee Association, which, it is stated, is destined to exceed, in a pecuniary point of view, anything of the kind ever held in the city.— The whole affair is in the charge of many of the most prominent ladies, and considerable expense has been incurred in making it attractive to the people. Since its opening last week it has been crowded with visitors and purchasers, and the success which has attended it continues unabated. The proceeds will be devoted to the relief of the indigent families of deceased Confederate soldiers.

In Brownlow's State his militia are deliberately murdering men without any other reason assigned than that they were Confederates.

Heigh, ho! we once saw an engraving representing a mad bull pitching into a crowd assembled to witness a hanging, and one of the culprits standing on the scaffold, with the halter round his neck, remarking to the other, "How lucky, Jack, that we are up here!"

Lord Monck, the newly-appointed Governor-General of Canada, gets a salary of twelve thousand pounds sterling, besides house rents and other perquisites. He thus receives in money what is equivalent, at the present rates of exchange, to about $80,000, or more than three times the salary of the President of the United States.

The German papers announce the death of a man who was so devoted an admirer of Cervantes that he spent nearly the whole of his life and a considerable fortune in collecting every edition of "Don Quixote" which has been published in Europe since its first appearance. There were found in the library of this curious bibliomaniac 400 editions of "Don Quixote" in the Spanish language, 163 in French, 200 in English, 4 in Russian, 4 in Greek, 8 in Polish, 6 in Danish, 13 in Swedish, and 5 in Latin.

Twenty-three white men (Radicals) in Norfolk have petitioned General Schofield to remove a crippled white man from the poor little office of keeper of the City Hall, which scarcely supplies bread for his family, and appoint a negro, also crippled, in his place.

Ninety-one thousand dollars in government bonds are said to have been stolen from a package in the Treasury at Washington. Thief unknown.

The President of the United States and his escort will leave Washington city for Boston, on Friday morning the 21st instant. His escort will consist of Washington Commandery No. 1, and Columbia Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templar.

Jefferson Davis is going to make a short trip to England.—Washington Star.

The first line of the new radical song begins thus: "We'll hang Horace Greeley to that sour apple tree, because he helped to set Jeff. Davis free."

General Buckner, of the Confederate army, has been sued for $387,000 for burning bridges during the war.

Thursday Evening Dispatches.

RADICALS IN RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, June 13.

A Republican meeting was held at the African Church last night. Senator Wilson congratulated them on the fact that the party divisions in Virginia had ended, and he now felt sure of the election of a radical State Convention, and Governor, and United States Senators of the same political faith.

Geo. F. Noyes, of New York, spoke in favor of the rights of the colored people, and said if they were secured all would go well, but if not, he was in favor of confiscation and war to the knife.

Messrs. Jay and Van Buren, of New York, and Geo. Slacks, of Mass., also addressed the meeting.

SURRATT'S TRIAL—OPINION OF THE CABINET ON REMOVALS FROM OFFICE BY MILITARY COMMANDERS.

WASHINGTON, June 13.

The filling of the jury for Surratt's trial is progressing. The panel will most probably be completed to-day.

The Intelligencer, which is now regarded as the Executive organ, has the following:

"We have authority for the statement that, at a very recent consultation of the Cabinet, it was decided that the Military Officers, in command of the five districts into which the ten unrepresented Southern States are divided, have no power to remove civil officers deriving their authority from the State Governments as now organized. The question, we understand, before the Cabinet had more immediate reference to the removal of the Governor and other civil officers of the State of Louisiana by Gen. Sheridan; but, of course, will apply to the action of the other four Commanders. No doubt the forthcoming opinion of the Attorney General, in accordance with the reasoning by which, it is understood, the decision referred to was arrived at, will fully justify the legality and propriety of this determination.

It scarcely need be suggested that the issuing of orders, replacing the deposed officers, (which may become necessary as a consequence of this decision of the Government) would be no ground for application, on the part of General Sheridan, to be relieved from the position he holds. Much less, would it warrant the inference, that the administration contemplates or desires his removal for his errors. We feel authorized to say that the speculations of sensational journals upon this point, however they may be attempted to be supported by imagined political manoeuverers, on the part of either the friends or enemies of the General, are wholly without foundation."

CHARGE OF MALFEASANCE.

WILMINGTON, June 13.

Col J. P. Foster, Collector of Customs, has been arraigned before a U. S Commissioner on a charge of malfeasance in office. The defendant was bailed in the sum of $5,000, and the case continued till the 27th. inst.

FROM CHARLESTON.

CHARLESTON, June 13.

Gen. Green, Post Commandant at Columbia, being ordered to the Indiana frontier, has been presented by the citizens of that place with a handsome cane, as a testimonial of their esteem for him.

GOV. BROWN—MURDER BY NEGROES.

AUGUSTA, June 13.

Gov. Brown has delivered a speech at Milledgeville on the present situation and future prospects of the country. He takes strong ground in favor of reorganizing under the military act, as the only hope of restoration; and denounces the reconstruction policy of Gov. Perry, and others, who oppose reconstruction on the proposed terms.

Robert Price of South Carolina was murdered by freedmen near this place last night.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, June 13.

Gen Schofield has been invited to Lexington, Va., to be present at the inauguration of a statue of Washington.

J. J. Philips was arrested to-day charged with the murder of Mary J. Piets, of Caroline County. The dead body was found near Richmond, some months ago, and much excitement was created by the murder.

THE DISTRICT COMMANDERS.

WASHINGTON, June 13

It is almost certain that the acts of the District commanders, whenever they have transcended the nominations of the law, will be reversed and the power of the Provisional Governments restored, and that the functionaries of the Provisional Governments will hereafter only be removed by Court Martial or act of Congress. This is the decision of the Cabinet, Stanton only dissenting by silence.

The probable resignation of the District Commanders under these reversals and restraints was discussed. Such action was apprehended and deplored. The point was made, however, that these District Commanders were soldiers on duty, and that, however unpleasant the duty, they cannot abandon their posts.

MEXICAN NEWS—MIRAMON DEAD—CASTELLA, MEJIA AND OTHERS SHOT—MAXIMILIAN'S FATE UNKNOWN—ATTEMPTED BURNING OF NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, June 13.

The Picayune has the following:

The El Comerco of Matamoras of the 7th. gives the following as extracts from a letter of the 2nd. inst., from Monterey: Miramon has died of a fever which attacked him after he was wounded at Queretaro. Catella, Mejia and several others have been shot. The most profound silence is preserved as to what is to be the fate of Maximilian. The chief functionaries talk both ways.

The El Mericano, the Independent paper published at Brownsville, pronounces Maximilian's proclamation a forgery, and says that it originated with a burlesquing paper at San Louis Potozi.

An attempt at arson on Charles street in this city has been discovered and frustrated. If successful it would have destroyed several business houses. The object was to swindle the Insurance Companies.

SPECIAL NOTICES

KNOW THY DESTINY.

MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. MOTHER'S GRAVE.

BY GEORGE D. PRENTICE.

The trembling dew drops fall
 Upon the shutting flowers, like souls at rest;
The stars shine gloriously, and all
 Save me are blessed.

Mother! I love thy grave!
 The violet, with its blossoms blue and mild,
Waves o'er thy head. When will it wave
 Above thy child's?

'Tis a sweet flower; yet must
 Its bright leaves to the morning tempest bow?
Dear Mother, 'tis thine emblem—dust
 Is on thy brow.

And I could love to die—
 To leave untasted life's dark, bitter streams,
By thee, as first in childhood, lie
 And share thy dreams.

And I must linger here
 To stain the plumage of my sinless years,
And mourn the hopes of childhood dear
 With bitter tears.

Aye, I must linger here,
 A lonely branch upon a withered tree,
Whose last frail leaf, untimely sere,
 Went down with thee.

Oft from life's withered bower,
 In still communion with the past, I turn,
And muse on thee, the only flower
 In memory's urn.

And when the evening, pale,
 Bows like a mourner, on the dim, blue wave,
I stray to hear the night winds wail
 Around thy grave.

Where is thy spirit flown?
 I gaze above—thy look is imaged there—
I listen, and thy gentle tone
 Is on the air.

O, come, while here I press
 My brow upon thy grave, and in those mild
And thrilling tones of tenderness,
 Bless, bless thy child!

Sala's Correspondence of the London Telegraph.

PARIS DOLLS.

A dozen years since, Paris, and, indeed, the whole Continent, were content with the simple old-fashioned dolls—with their waxen, meaningless, simpering faces, their round, startling blue eyes, their little pudgy hands and arms, and their little stumpy feet, with the blue kid shoes and the openwork socks. A doll undressed was a sight which would not have raised a blush to the cheek of the most prurient prude. Dolly was a mere bifurcated bag of bran. Sometimes she had pink kid legs, but they were entirely innocent of calves. She had a waist, but no purist would accuse her of wearing a bustle. She was a doll, in fact, made to be nursed and tossed, and tumbled about by little children—to be dragged about in a go-cart, and occasionally to be run away with in the mouth of the big dog.

* * * * * * *

I entreat you to make your way to Group IV., Class XXXIX, and see what Remond, and Huret, and Lonchambon, what Dessain, what Verdavainne, what Fialon, what Bontemps, what Loiseau, what Simonne, what Andrina, what Schuetze, and what Schanne, all of Paris, have to show in the way of dolls and dolls' toilets, gutta-percha dolls, wax dolls, articulated wooden dolls, porcelain dolls' furniture, hosiery, underclothing, jewelry, and kitchen utensils. Let me first render to these eminent manufacturers of toys all that which they really deserve credit for. Their mere bimbeloterie is capital.—Their toys, as toys, are wonderful. Never was there seen such ingenious specimens of mechanism as the new poupees articulees, which are so cunningly jointed that they will stand without any adventitious support, and can be put into almost every position proper to the human being. They well-nigh rival the mannequins, or lay figures, for the use of artists, which have always commanded large prices, and these articulated dolls, undressed, are sold at least a hundred per cent. below that asked by the artist's lay figure maker. For grace and symmetry of form the old bifurcated bran-bags cannot, of course, compare with them, but it is their toilette that costs the money. It is their mahogany and rosewood furniture, their mirrors and consoles, their chandeliers and their Aubusson carpets, that ruin the young prodigals of sixty-seven.

If you buy a doll in Paris now a days you must not only put her dans ses meubles, but furnish for her a luxurious boudoir in the Pompadour or the Empire style. She must have a "ghroom" and a "jockei." She must have a grand piano from Erard or Pleyel. Her glove must come from Madame Causse, her bonnet from Jenny Navaree, her watch from Leroy, her diamonds from Mellerio.—She must have seventy-two petticoats, like the Russian countess, who lives at the hotel Bristol. She must bathe in milk of almonds, or sang de menthe. And I am very much afraid that, if you are suddenly called away, and return, in about a fortnight, unexpected, you will find your doll drinking champagne with your "ghroom." Don't think I am talking about real men and women. I am discoursing simply about the dolls, who, in the French Bimbelotori Court at the Exhibition, are flirting, lounging, waltzing, dingling on the piano-forte, surveying themselves in mirrors, and ogling each other through consoles. The old child doll type seems entirely lost. The French toymen have taken to the manufacture of adult dolls. They look like dolls that have vices—dolls don't care much about the seventh commandment—dolls who, to feed their own insatiable appetite, would eat you out of house and home, mortgage your lands, beggar your children, and then present you with a toy revolver to blow out your brains withal. They are so terribly symmetrical, so awfully lifelike; they carry their long trains, and nurse their poodles, and read their billets doux and try on their gloves, and gamble at lansquenet with such dreadful perfection, that you would not be at all surprised at last to find a male doll cheating at cards, or a female doll running a long milliner's bill and forgetting to pay it.—And this is the chief count in my indictment against the modern dolls in the Exhibition. They have nothing to do with the happy, innocent, ignorant time of childhood. They look like dolls who know the time of day, and whom no young man from the country—or any other man—can get over. The old wizards used to make to themselves waxen dolls in the likeness of persons whom they hated, and into these effigies they used to stick huge corking pins, every puncture of which inflicted corresponding torture on the living original. I never look upon the grown up dolls in the French Bimbelotori Court without thinking of Mr. Barham's story of "The Leech of Folkestone."

GENERAL ORDER NO. 32.

HEADQUARTERS, 2ND MILITARY DISTRICT,
Charleston, May 30.

General Orders No. 32.

1. Any citizen, a qualified voter according to the requirements of the Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2nd, 1867, and the act supplemental thereto, passed March 23rd. 1867, is eligible to office in the Provisional government of North and South Carolina. All persons appointed to office will be required to take the oath prescribed by the act aforesaid and to file the same duly subscribed and sworn with the Post Commander.

2. All citizens assessed for taxes, and who shall have paid taxes for the current year, are qualified to serve as jurors. It shall be the duty of the proper civil officers, charged with providing lists of jurors, to proceed within their several jurisdictions, without delay, and ascertain the names of all qualified persons, and place them on the jury lists, and from such revised lists all jurors shall be hereafter summoned, and drawn in the manner required by law.

3. All citizens are eligible to follow any licensed calling, employment or avocation, subject to such impartial regulations as may be prescribed by municipal or other competent authority, not inconsistent with common rights and the Constitution and laws of the United States. The bond required as security shall not exceed the penal sum of one hundred dollars. One or more sureties being citizens and worth, in the aggregate, double the amount of the bond, over and above just debts, will be sufficient.

4. The Mayors of cities and other municipal and town officers, and all Sheriffs, Magistrates and Police officers, are required to be vigilant and efficient in maintaining order, and in the discharge of their duties. They will be expected to co-operate with the military authorities.

5. Post commanders may summon to their aid, whenever the ordinary means at their disposal shall not be sufficient to execute their orders, such of the civil officers, and as many of the citizens, within the territorial limits of the military post, as may be necessary, and the neglect or refusal of any person to aid and assist in the execution of the orders of the Commanding officer will be deemed a misdemeanor, punishable by such fine and imprisonment as may be imposed by a military tribunal approved by the Commanding General.

6. No license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in quantities less than one gallon or to be drank on the premises shall be granted to any person other than an Inn-keeper. The number of such licenses shall be determined, and the fees to be charged for each license shall be prescribed and collected, by the municipal or town authorities and appropriated exclusively for the benefit of the poor. If any person shall be found drunk on the premises where liquor is sold, the license may be revoked by any magistrate. The tax imposed by the Internal Revenue laws of the United States is an additional charge and does not excuse the person from the observance of local regulations, nor exempt him from the payment of such other license fees as may be imposed by the municipal or other competent authorities.

7. All contracts hereafter made for the manufacture, sale or transportation, storage or insurance of intoxicating liquors shall within this military district be deemed and treated as against public policy, and no civil action, suit or proceedings for the enforcement of any such contract shall be entertained in any court.

8 In public conveyances on railroads, highways, streets or navigable waters, no discrimination because of color or caste shall be made, and the common rights of all citizens therein shall be recognized and respected. The violation of this regulation will be deemed a misdemeanor and render the offender liable to arrest and trial by a Military tribunal to be designated by the commanding General, besides such damages as the injured party may sue for and recover in the civil Courts.

9. The remedy by distress for rent is abolished. Where lands are leased, or let out for hire or rent, cotton, corn or other produce of the same, when severed from the land, may be impounded, but the same shall not be removed. Any cotton, corn or other produce so impounded shall be held as security for the rent or hire so claimed and may be sold in satisfaction of any judgment for the same, Provided, that any unsatisfied claim for labor bestowed upon the cultivation of such cotton, corn, or other produce, shall, in no case, be postponed to any demand for rent or hire. But to the extent of such claim for labor there shall be a lien on such cotton, corn and other produce having preference over any claim for rent or hire.

Congressional Reconstruction Acts

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 2d, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgment it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,
President of the Senate pro tem.

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SEC. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

SEC. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

SEC. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

SEC. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

SEC. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

SEC. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

SEC. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

SEC. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

SEC. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

SEC. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."
